vengeance or bear a grudge
against the sons of
your own people,
but you shall love your
neighbor as yourself:
I am the LORD.*

The Seventh Sunday after Epiphany

Welcome to the House of the Lord

Today's Scripture readings encourage us both to remember who we are in Christ: "You are God's temple . . . You are Christ's", and they encourage us to live differently than the world. They encourage us to provide for the needy, treat the poor with respect, be honest, don't bear a grudge, love your neighbor as yourself, love your enemy, and pray for those who persecute you. As God's dearly loved children, may He strengthen us to live perfectly, as children of the heavenly father. Blessings on your worship.

Opening Hymn 912 Christ Is Our Cornerstone

Baptism 7:00pm Arsyn Jon Rusch

Confession and Absolution page 184

Psalmody Psalm 119:33–40

Lead me in the path of your commandments,
for I delight in it.

Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes;
and I will keep it to the end.

Give me understanding, that I may keep your law
and observe it with my whole heart.

Lead me in the path of your commandments,
for I delight in it.

Incline my heart to your testimonies,
and not to selfish gain!

Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things;
and give me life in your ways.

Confirm to your servant your promise,
that you may be feared.

Turn away the reproach that I dread,
for your just decrees are good.

Behold, I long for your precepts;
in your righteousness give me life!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in You, mercifully grant that by Your power we may be defended against all adversity; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading Leviticus 19:1–2, 9–18

And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them, You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy . . . ⁹“When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field right up to its edge, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest. ¹⁰And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD your God. ¹¹“You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; you shall not lie to one another. ¹²You shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD. ¹³“You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning. ¹⁴You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD. ¹⁵“You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor. ¹⁶You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand up against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD. ¹⁷“You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him. ¹⁸You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading

1 Corinthians 3:10–23

According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. ¹¹For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— ¹³each one’s work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. ¹⁴If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. ¹⁶Do you not know that you are God’s temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy him. For God’s temple is holy, and you are that temple. ¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is folly with God. For it is written, “He catches the wise in their craftiness,” ²⁰and again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile.” ²¹So let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, ²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, ²³and you are Christ’s, and Christ is God’s.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the fifth chapter.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’³⁹ But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.⁴⁰ And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well.⁴¹ And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles.⁴² Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you.⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’⁴⁴ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,⁴⁵ so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same?⁴⁸ You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Prayer of the Church

Note for those desiring to commune... Our practice of close communion is the Biblical and historic practice of the Christian church. It is prompted by love, both for God’s Word and for His people since it seeks to prevent spiritual damage to those who do not recognize the true body and blood of Christ in, with, and under the bread and wine in this Holy Supper (1 Cor. 11:29). Furthermore, it does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible’s deep concern for doctrinal truth (Romans 16:17) and the Bible’s witness that the Lord’s Supper is the highest expression of fellowship and doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42). For this reason, guests who are not a member of a sister LCMS congregation are asked to speak to a pastor before communing.

Positions Available at St. Paul

Dozens of members at St. Paul contribute hundreds of hours in a variety of ways without receiving compensation.

- We have two new non-paid positions we would like to fill.
- Hours are flexible.
- If interested, please contact Trisha Anderson, our office manager, or Pastor Shoup by February 28.

Push Pay Assistant

Push Pay is our online giving tool. Multiple members use it for making school payments or giving offerings electronically. It works especially well on a Smartphone.

Approximately $2,000 – $3,000 per month in offerings and payments come into our accounts via Push Pay.

The Push Pay Assistant needs to enjoy using a smart phone, and will

- Help with the ongoing introduction of and encouragement for use of Push Pay to our members and school families
- Help new Push Pay users with questions
- Help make monthly Push Pay statements available
- Become familiar with the applications Push Pay has to offer us at St. Paul
- Work with our office manager and Pastor Shoup

Communications Assistant

Sending out information clearly written, neatly and creatively formatted, in a timely manner for our church and school by means of mail, electronic mail, constant contact, fast direct, social media, smoke signals, and newsletters is necessary, challenging, and fun. The Communications Assistant needs strong organizational, pc, Smartphone, and writing skills, and will

- Meet with our pastors and school administrator in mapping out a communication timeline of church and school events
- Manage the communication timeline
- Write a small portion of the articles
- Format a large portion of the articles as designated for social media, electronic mail, etc.
- Work with Pastor Shoup, Pastor Palmer, Mr. Schmidt, and our office manager

LUTHERAN PUBLIC RADIO

You can listen to Lutheran music and Lutheran talk 24/7 on the Lutheran Public Radio mobile app.

The app allows you to listen to sacred music following the course of the church year and thoughtful and timely interviews with expert guests inside and outside Lutheranism.

Find it in the app store on your mobile device.

Camp Luther News . . . Junior Counselors Needed at Camp Luther for 2017

Applications are now available for Junior Counselor positions at Camp Luther this summer! If you are a current high school sophomore, junior or senior, you can serve in this integral part of the ministry of Camp Luther. As a JC, you will assist counselors with nearly every aspect of the summer camp program, and work hard to keep Camp Luther clean and polished for our many guests. If you are interested in this life-changing program check out the "Get Involved" tab at www.campluther.com.
