The 5th Sunday in Lent

A Worship Series on Moses ~ Let My People Go

Today's Theme:

Don't Just Do Something, Stand There

(Exodus 14:1-29)

Call to Worship

Shiphrah and Puah saved the baby boys, despite the Pharaoh's evil command. Moses said no to God, who then through a show of strength – turning the staff into a serpent, and promising to be with him – turned Moses' heart from fear of Pharaoh to trust in Him. Moses and Aaron went to the Pharaoh, saying for God, "Let my people go." He didn't. Ten miraculous signs, ten plagues, God sent upon Egypt in punishment, so they would know the LORD is God and so they would let God's people go. Blood, frogs, gnats, flies, death to livestock, boils, hail, locusts, darkness, and death fell upon Egypt. God instituted the Passover sacrifice, sparing the firstborn of all His families. Israel left Egypt, slavery, and the Pharaoh behind. Soon, their backs were against the Red Sea, and raging toward them were the chariots and horsemen of the Pharaoh. Their doom was looming. The LORD said:

Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again. The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be silent.

All this the LORD accomplished to save His people Israel.

What does He do for your salvation?

March Memory

Let us read, mark, learn, and take to heart your Word, O Lord:

“Join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God,”
(2 Timothy 1:8).

Hymn            564            Christ Sits at God’s Right Hand            (1, 3)

Invocation

In the name of the Father, and of the ✠ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Hear me, merciful and mighty Father, as I confess my bondage to sin and death.

I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.

For I have the desire to do good, but I cannot carry it out.            Romans 7:18

For what I do is not the good I want to do.

No, the evil I do not want to do, this I keep on doing.            Romans 7:19

I find this law at work—

When I want to do good, evil is right there with me.            Romans 7:21

For in my inner being I delight in God’s law.

Romans 7:22

But I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war and making me a prisoner of the law of sin and death.            Romans 7:23

At the root of my sinfulness is this truth:

I am unwilling and unable to fear, love, and trust in God above all things.

Wretched man that I am,

Who will deliver me from this body of death?            Romans 7:24

Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Hear the good news!

The LORD God who delivered Israel from the Egyptian bondage also delivers you from your body of sin and death. Jesus Christ, the Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed and His blood forgives you and sets you free. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father, ✠ Son, and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Hymn            564            Christ Sits at God’s Right Hand            (4, 5)

Psalm 105 (selected verses)

<sup>1</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!

<sup>4</sup>Seek the LORD and his strength;
seek his presence continually!

<sup>26</sup>He sent Moses, his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

<sup>27</sup>They performed his signs among them.
<sup>28</sup>He sent darkness, and made the land dark;

<sup>29</sup>He turned their waters into blood
and caused their fish to die.

<sup>30</sup>Their land swarmed with frogs,
even in the chambers of their kings.

<sup>31</sup>He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
and gnats throughout their country.

<sup>32</sup>He gave them hail for rain,
and fiery lightning bolts through their land.

<sup>33</sup>He struck down their vines and fig trees,
and shattered the trees of their country.

<sup>34</sup>He spoke, and the locusts came,
young locusts without number,

<sup>35</sup>which devoured all the vegetation in their land
and ate up the fruit of their ground.

<sup>36</sup>He struck down all the firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their strength.

<sup>37</sup>Then he brought out Israel with silver and gold,
and there was none among his tribes who stumbled.

<sup>39</sup>He spread a cloud for a covering,
and fire to give light by night.

<sup>43</sup>So he brought his people out with joy,
his chosen ones with singing.

<sup>44</sup>And he gave them the lands of the nations,
and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil,

<sup>45</sup>that they might keep his statutes
and observe his laws.

Praise the LORD!

Prayer

O Lord, often we are powerless against even our weakest of foes, like a little flu bug, a toothache, or a work problem. Where do we turn when the real problems come? When the guilt of our sin consumes our hearts, when death threatens and then strikes, or when the last Day comes and we face Your judgment? We praise You, that Your Word through Moses to the Israelites, You speak also to us: "Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will work for you today." For calling us out of spiritual death into eternal life with and through Your Son, we thank You, almighty and gracious God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Exodus 14:1–25

Crossing the Red Sea

<sup>1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, <sup>2</sup>"Tell the people of Israel to turn back and encamp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baal-zephon; you shall encamp facing it, by the sea. <sup>3</sup>For Pharaoh will say of the people of Israel, 'They are wandering in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.' <sup>4</sup>And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them, and I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host, and the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD." And they did so.

<sup>5</sup>When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the mind of Pharaoh and his servants was changed toward the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" <sup>6</sup>So he made ready his chariot and took his army with him, <sup>7</sup>and took six hundred chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the people of Israel while the people of Israel were going out defiantly. <sup>9</sup>The Egyptians pursued them, all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and his horsemen and his army, and overtook them encamped at the sea, by Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.

<sup>10</sup>When Pharaoh drew near, the people of Israel lifted up their eyes,

and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them, and they feared greatly. And the people of Israel cried out to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>They said to Moses, "Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us in bringing us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Is not this what we said to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'?"

For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.”

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said to the people,

“Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today.

For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to be silent.”

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward. <sup>16</sup>Lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the people of Israel may go through the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup>And I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they shall go in after them, and I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>18</sup>And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten glory over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.”

<sup>19</sup>Then the angel of God who was going before the host of Israel moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them, <sup>20</sup>coming between the host of Egypt and the host of Israel.

And there was the cloud and the darkness. And it lit up the night without one coming near the other all night.

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

<sup>22</sup>And the people of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

<sup>23</sup>The Egyptians pursued and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>24</sup>And in the morning watch

the LORD in the pillar of fire and of cloud looked down on the Egyptian forces and threw the Egyptian forces into a panic,

And the Egyptians said, “Let us flee from before Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.”

<sup>26</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses,

“Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.”

<sup>27</sup>So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal course when the morning appeared. And as the Egyptians fled into it, the LORD threw the Egyptians into the midst of the sea. <sup>28</sup>The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen; of all the host of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea, not one of them remained.

<sup>29</sup>But the people of Israel walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

<sup>30</sup>Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>31</sup>Israel saw the great power that the LORD used against the Egyptians, so the people feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel                      John 6:38–43

<sup>38</sup>For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. <sup>39</sup>And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me,

but raise it up on the last day.

<sup>40</sup>For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life,

and I will raise him up on the last day.”

<sup>41</sup>So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” <sup>42</sup>They said, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?” <sup>43</sup>Jesus answered them, “Do not grumble among yourselves. <sup>44</sup>No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him.

And I will raise him up on the last day.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

The Service of the Sacrament

Note for those desiring to commune... Our practice of closed communion is the Biblical and historic practice of the Christian church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for His people since it seeks to prevent spiritual damage to those who do not recognize the true body and blood of Christ in, with, and under the bread and wine in this Holy Supper (1 Cor. 11:29). Furthermore, it does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Romans 16:17) and the Bible's witness that the Lord's Supper is the highest expression of fellowship and doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42). For this reason, guests who are not a member of a sister LCMS congregation are asked to speak to a pastor before communing.

Admonition to Communicants

We now come to this altar, giving us memory of the thousands of animals sacrificed in Old Testament times. This same altar points to the altar of the cross upon which our Lord was sacrificed, once for all, taking the punishment of our sins. For, "By his stripes are we healed," and "The chastisement that brought us peace was upon him." Let us then take to heart the words with which Christ presents His body and blood, and give thanks for the incomprehensible love that He showed us when He saved us from the wrath of God, sin, death, and hell by His blood. Come, let us receive through the bread and the wine His true body and blood, His guarantee and pledge to us.

The Lord's Prayer

Lord, remember us in Your Kingdom and teach us to pray:

Our Father who art in heaven...
