Old Testament Reading — Genesis 3:8–15

And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup>But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” <sup>10</sup>And he said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself.” <sup>11</sup>He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?” <sup>12</sup>The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate.” <sup>13</sup>Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.” <sup>14</sup>The LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and above all beasts of the field; on your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. <sup>15</sup>I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”

Epistle Reading — 2 Corinthians 4:13—5:1

Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, “I believed, and so I spoke,” we also believe, and so we also speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence. <sup>15</sup>For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. <sup>16</sup>So we do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup>For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, <sup>18</sup>as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal. <sup>1</sup>For we know that if the tent, which is our earthly home, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

The Holy Gospel — Mark 3:20–35

Then [Jesus] went home, and the crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat. <sup>21</sup>And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying, “He is out of his mind.” <sup>22</sup>And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and “by the prince of demons he casts out the demons.” <sup>23</sup>And he called them to him and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? <sup>24</sup>If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. <sup>25</sup>And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. <sup>27</sup>But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house. <sup>28</sup>“Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, <sup>29</sup>but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin” — <sup>30</sup>for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.” <sup>31</sup>And his mother and his brothers came, and standing outside they sent to him and called him. <sup>32</sup>And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, seeking you.” <sup>33</sup>And he answered them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” <sup>34</sup>And looking about at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup>Whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother.”

The Lutheran Hour . . . "Tell Me a Story!" (Mark 4:26–34) Jesus loves to tell us stories. In His stories about the normal things of life, Jesus teaches us about the reign of God in our lives. This Father's Day, what makes for a godly father, or mother or Christian — the willingness to tell our stories! Tune in next Sunday to hear Rev. Dr. Dale A. Meyer at 7:30am on WTCH/960 AM, at 10:00am on WRVM/102.7 FM, or at .org.

St. Paul School News

Teacher Aide Position . . . Mrs. Bridgett Dingeldein will be leaving the St. Paul staff at the end of this school year. She has served as a teacher aide for the last 14 years, almost entirely in the first & second grade classrooms. We thank her for the many hours which she spent working with the teachers and students. We wish her God's Blessings.

Housing needed . . . The teacher for third grade this fall is Miss Candis Zills. She has accepted the call and is looking for housing in the Bonduel area. If you know of an apartment or housing unit that could be rented, please contact the school office. She would like to move to the area in July to be prepared for the new school year.

Other Positions . . . Miss Michelle Krueger has accepted St. Paul's designation to fill the first grade teacher position. The Board of Christian Education is gathering names to fill the middle school science teacher position. If you know of someone who is qualified for teaching at St. Paul, please email the name and contact information to Principal Gerry Schmidt at .schmidt@stpaulbonduel.com or call 715-758-8532.

Rummage Sale . . . will be at Immanuel Lutheran Church, W3110 White Clay Lake Drive, Cecil, Thursday – Saturday, June 14 –16. Times are 8:00am – 5:00pm on Thursday and Friday, 8:00am – 1:00pm on Saturday. There will also be baked items.

Bonduel Community Food Pantry . . . is in need of plastic grocery bags. Serving families in the Bonduel School District, the Bonduel Community Food Pantry housed at St. Paul (in the hallway to 1954 school kitchen) is participating in the Share the Bounty program. Distribution is the second Wednesday of the month. If you have plastic grocery bags to share, they may be dropped off at the school office, or see Jerry and Toni Schoepke in the Food Pantry on the second Wednesday of the month. Thank you for your cooperation.

Thank you to everyone who came out to make the St. Paul congregation picnic so enjoyable and successful. We are grateful to the many volunteers who prepared and served the lunch, set up the awning tents and picnic tables on the patio, organized the registration and Bicycle Giveaway, the Barrel Train, the T & T Polka Band, and other games and activities. Special thanks to all the bakers who furnished pies for the infamous Pie Auction
