The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome to the House of the Lord

Welcome to worship. There are all kinds of firsts and bests and favorites in life. Maybe you can name some. This morning in our Epistle Reading from Ephesians, the Apostle Paul talks about several items that he coins with the word "ONE." Our focus will be on four of these "ONE"S. ONE hope. ONE Lord. ONE Faith. And ONE Baptism. The entire worship service, from the beginning to the end, is filled with references to each of these "ONE"S. Of course, our worship will begin with the name given us in the ONE baptism as His name is spoken, "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Blessings on your worship.

Opening Hymn 790 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty (1 – 3)

Confession and Absolution page 203

Psalmody — Psalm 145:10 –21

All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD,

and all your saints shall bless you!

They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom

and tell of your power,

to make known to the children of man your mighty deeds,

and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

The LORD is faithful in all his words

and kind in all his works.

The LORD upholds all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

The eyes of all look to you,
and you give them their food in due season.
You open your hand;
you satisfy the desire of every living thing.
The LORD is righteous in all his ways
and kind in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call on him,
to all who call on him in truth.
He fulfills the desire of those who fear him;
he also hears their cry and saves them.
The LORD preserves all who love him,
but all the wicked he will destroy.
My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD,
and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

Merciful Father, You gave Your Son Jesus as the heavenly bread of life. Grant us faith to feast on Him in Your Word and Sacraments that we may be nourished unto life everlasting; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Hymn 790 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty (4-5)

Old Testament Reading — Exodus 16:2-15

The whole congregation of the people of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness,³ and the people of Israel said to them, “Would that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots and ate bread to the full, for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

⁴Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I am about to rain bread from heaven for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law or not. ⁵On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.” ⁶So Moses and Aaron said to all the people of Israel, “At evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, ⁷and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your grumbling against the LORD. For what are we, that you grumble against us?” ⁸And Moses said, “When the LORD gives you in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to the full, because the LORD has heard your grumbling that you grumble against him—what are we? Your grumbling is not against us but against the LORD.” ⁹Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling.’” ¹⁰And as soon as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. ¹¹And the LORD said to Moses, ¹²“I have heard the grumbling of the people of Israel. Say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’” ¹³In the evening quail came up and covered the camp, and in the morning dew lay around the camp. ¹⁴And when the dew had gone up, there was on the face of the wilderness a fine, flake-like thing, fine as frost on the ground. ¹⁵When the people of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading — Ephesians 4:1–16

I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ²with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, ³eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. ⁷But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ’s gift. ⁸Therefore it says, “When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men.” ⁹(In saying, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) ¹¹And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. ¹⁵Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, ¹⁶from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse page 205

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

These things are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Holy Gospel — John 6:22-35

The Holy Gospel according to St. John the sixth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

On the next day the crowd that remained on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone. ²³Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. ²⁵When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?” ²⁶Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you are seeking me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. ²⁷Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal.” ²⁸Then they said to him, “What must we do, to be doing the works of God?” ²⁹Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.” ³⁰So they said to him, “Then what sign do you do, that we may see and believe you? What work do you perform? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’” ³²Jesus then said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” ³⁴They said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” ³⁵Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Prayer of the Church

The Service of the Sacrament page 208

Note for those desiring to commune... Our practice of close communion is the Biblical and historic practice of the Christian church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for His people since it seeks to prevent spiritual damage to those who do not recognize the true body and blood of Christ in, with, and under the bread and wine in this Holy Supper (1 Corinthians 11:29). Furthermore, it does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Romans 16:17) and the Bible's witness that the Lord's Supper is the highest expression of fellowship and doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42). For this reason, guests who are not a member of a sister LCMS congregation are asked to speak to our pastor before communing.

Seeking Volunteers . . . Our School HVAC project is scheduled to be completed around mid August. Our teachers are scheduled to start their school year on August 15. Their rooms need to be ready well before their students arrive. It would be a blessing to have many volunteers assist in cleaning selected areas. All upstairs classrooms will need cleaning. Your participation would be an opportunity to familiarize yourself with our school and would be greatly appreciated. Please contact the school office, 715-758-8532 for the cleaning schedule and other details. God Bless.

Open House Reception . . . Friends and members of the congregation are cordially invited to an open house reception honoring Marvin and Althea Klosterman in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary. The reception will be today, Sunday, August 5, after the early church service in the fellowship hall.

Share the Bounty . . . Excess garden produce may be dropped off on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, August 6, 7, and 8, 8:00am – 2:00pm in the church office. The next Food Pantry distribution takes place on August 8.

Blood Drive . . . The American Red Cross will sponsor a blood drive in the fellowship hall on Monday, August 20, from 1:00-6:00pm.

ALL TYPES ARE NEEDED. To make an appointment, please sign up in the narthex, or register online at redcrossblood.org. Enter sponsor code: stpaulbonduel. Volunteers are needed for registration, workers in the donor area, and to make cookies for the canteen. Contact Audrey Wussow, 715-758-8856 with questions. The August donor treat is a root beer float. Your participation is sincerely appreciated!

The 55+ Group . . . will meet on Tuesday, August 14, with a potluck lunch beginning at noon in the fellowship hall. Please note the change of date. The program, die Deutsche Stunde, will be presented by Marilyn Hille (The German Hour). Plan for an enjoyable afternoon with your friends.

Pastor Naumann and family . . . were with us July 29 and he shared a message that was right to the heart of our faith. The weekend door offerings will be sent through the LCMS to support his ministry in Sri Lanka. Some members are already supporting the Naumann family on an ongoing basis. To learn more about how to do this you can go to lcms.org/naumann OR fill out one of the forms available in the narthex OR contact Dave Hedtke at 715-758-2728 for more information or help in setting up a contribution. The Naumann family is expecting their sixth child this fall and the ministry is in the middle of a country that needs the Gospel but has an ongoing conflict between different factions. They NEED YOUR PRAYERS and any financial assistance you can offer.

Benefit for Dede and Reid Schwerin . . . Dede and Reid unexpectedly lost their husband and father Steve Schwerin this past spring, leaving them with extensive medical bills and other expenses. A four-person scramble golf outing will be held at Golden Sands on Saturday, August 25th to aid the Schwerin family during this difficult time. This event will run from 2:00pm-6:00pm. The cost will be $65 per person (including members). This includes golf, cart, and dinner, with $25.00 of each member entry going directly to the family. Dinner only will be $20. There will be entertainment, a meat raffle, a silent auction, a 50/50 raffle. Anyone who sponsors a hole will be entitled to participate in the scramble for $40.00/person. For more information, please call Golden Sands at 715-745-2189.

St. Paul School News

School Entrance will be closed . . . August 3 – 9 while cleaning/waxing of the floors takes place. Please use the church doors to enter the building.

St. Paul Teaching Positions . . . The teaching positions at St. Paul have all been filled for the 2018–19 school year. We welcome -

Michele Krueger	1 st grade CUW Grad	Called
Candis Zills	3 rd grade CUW Grad	Called
Morgan Mahan	6 th grade St. Norbert Grad	Contracted

These teachers will be installed and the entire Faculty will be rededicated during the 8:00am service on September 9. After the service there will be a time to meet the entire faculty and welcome the new teachers to St. Paul.

The teachers will be meeting on August 15 for the start of the new school year. School will begin on September 4. We currently have 222 students from the 3-year-old group through the 8th grade for the 201819 school year.

Parents . . . with children enrolled at St. Paul should watch for the first newsletter (Friday Note) for the school year to be sent to you through Fast Direct. If you are a parent and are not aware of what Fast Direct is, please contact the school office and we will get you your logon information for Fast Direct.

If you are aware of parents who are interested in having their child(ren) attend St. Paul, have them contact the school office at 715–758–8532.

Extra Unused Offering Envelopes . . . may be placed in the designated boxes in the narthex and the church office. They are recycled and used for chapel offerings.

The Lutheran Hour . . . "Pigeonholed" (John 6:42) Just when you think you are getting to know Jesus, He says something which can confuse. Today the world remains confused about God's Son, our Savior. That's because Jesus refuses to be pigeonholed by the world's desires or expectations. He's God's Son, Who has come to save humankind. Anything else is simply unacceptable. Tune in next Sunday to hear Rev. Dr. Ken Klaus at 7:30am on WTCH/960 AM, at 10:00am on WRVM/102.7 FM, or at .org.
