The Fifth Sunday after Epiphany

Lord, You Have Made Us Fishers of Men!

Preservice Song 10:15am My Lighthouse

Opening Hymn 940 Holy God, We Praise Thy Name (1-3)

Opening Litany

In the name of the Father, and of the ✠ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

In today's Old Testament reading, the prophet Isaiah sees the LORD seated in the temple with six-winged seraphim flying about Him singing, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts."

And Isaiah was filled with fear and awe.

Isaiah recognized his utter sinfulness compared to God's holy righteousness. In repentant faith, we join Isaiah to say,

"Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips," and I therefore deserve to be condemned forever. O Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

The angel touched Isaiah's lips with a burning coal and said, "Your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for." In His infinite mercy, so has the Lord taken away your sin "as far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed your sin from you."

In today's Gospel reading, we hear of Peter's unsuccessful fishing venture. He said to Jesus,

"Master, we toiled all night and took nothing!"

Upon following the Word of the Lord to let down their nets once more, and at the catching of so many fish that the nets were breaking, Peter was filled with fear. Peter knew that God was standing next to him in his boat. Jesus said to Peter,

“Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.”

Peter was relieved in hearing, and honored to be participating in “catching men.”

Lord, why am I so slow to speak of your name to others?

You have committed to me the care of my neighbor’s soul.

Why do I fail to correct my friend for a particular sin which is harming his faith?

Why am I lax in praying for my neighbor’s salvation? Am I afraid to say something because I know my own sin is also great?

Is my desire for my friend’s favor more important than my concern for my friend’s faith?

If my friend dies a physical death, I mourn, even though physical death brings no ultimate harm to a godly person, but rather provides a transition to the heavenly kingdom.

If my friend dies a spiritual death by committing grave sins, do I watch my friend die without concern?

My friend stumbles on a stone and I quickly prevent the fall or help my friend get up.

If my friend stumbles on Christ the Cornerstone of our salvation (Psalm 118:22), do I show careless neglect?

The truth is, by failing to help a friend out of sin, it is the same as participating in it.

Lord, forgive me! Lord, strengthen me! Lord, let me live out my faith by what I do and by what I say!

The Lord forgives you! The Lord made you a part of His kingdom! The Lord has called you to be fishers of men!

Introit

O God, be not far from me;

O my God, make haste to help me!

My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of Your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.

With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come;

I will remind them of Your righteousness, Yours alone.

O God, from my youth You have taught me,

and I still proclaim Your wondrous deeds.

So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim Your might to another generation, Your power to all those to come.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Holy God, We Praise Thy Name (4–5)

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O Lord, keep Your family the Church continually in the true faith that, relying on the hope of Your heavenly grace, we may ever be defended by Your mighty power; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading — Isaiah 6:1–13

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ²Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!” ⁴And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵And I said: “Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!” ⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷And he touched my mouth and said: “Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for.” ⁸And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.” ⁹And he said, “Go, and say to this people: ““Keep on hearing, but do not understand; keep on seeing, but do not perceive.” ¹⁰Make the heart of this people dull, and their ears heavy, and blind their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed.” ¹¹Then I said, “How long, O Lord?” And he said: “Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is a desolate waste, ¹²and the LORD removes people far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land. ¹³And though a tenth remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak, whose stump remains when it is felled.” The holy seed is its stump.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading — 1 Corinthians 14:12b–20

Since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church. ¹³Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider say “Amen” to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are saying? ¹⁷For you may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not being built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹Nevertheless, in church I would rather speak five words with my mind in order to instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue. ²⁰Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse page 205

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

These things are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the fifth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on [Jesus] to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, ²and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵And Simon answered, “Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.” ⁶And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. ⁷They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.” ⁹For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” ¹¹And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.
