The Ascension of Our Lord

Opening Hymn 493 A Hymn of Glory Let Us Sing (1-4)

Confession and Absolution page 151

Introit

God has gone up with a shout,

the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

The LORD says to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool.”

The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind,

“You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”

The Lord is at your right hand;

he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, as Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, ascended into the heavens, so may we also ascend in heart and mind and continually dwell there with Him, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading — Acts 1:1–11

In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, ²until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. ³To them he presented himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. ⁴And while staying with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, “you heard from me; ⁵for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.” ⁶So when they had come together, they asked him, “Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?” ⁷He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” ⁹And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. ¹⁰And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, ¹¹and said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading — Ephesians 1:15–23

For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, ¹⁶I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, ¹⁷that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, ¹⁸having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might ²⁰that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. ²²And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the twenty-fourth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

Then [Jesus] said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled.” ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.” ⁵⁰Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. ⁵¹While he blessed them, he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵²And they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³and were continually in the temple blessing God.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Prayer of the Church

The Service of the Sacrament page 160

Note for those desiring to commune... Our practice of close communion is the Biblical and historic practice of the Christian church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for His people since it seeks to prevent spiritual damage to those who do not recognize the true body and blood of Christ in, with, and under the bread and wine in this Holy Supper (1 Corinthians 11:29). Furthermore, it does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Romans 16:17) and the Bible's witness that the Lord's Supper is the highest expression of fellowship and doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42). For this reason, guests who are not a member of a sister LCMS congregation are asked to speak to our pastor before communing.

The Lutheran Hour . . . "My Spirit Makes My People"

Speaker: Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler. God sends His Spirit upon both the selfish and “group-ish” to make His people. (Ezekiel 37:1–14) Tune in next Sunday at 7:30am on WTCH/960 AM, at 10:00am on WRVM/102.7 FM, or at .org.

Thank you to the family of Arlene Grunewald for providing the church/school with a new floor scrubber. The floors are looking great and the staff is happy with how easy it is to use.

St. Paul Men’s Club Thank You

St. Paul Men’s Club would like to give a heart filled thanks to all the members of St. Paul Lutheran Church, and all nonmembers, who helped to make our steak fry a total success. Without your help we could not have of made this happen.

Many thanks to:

- All the club members for their hard work and for all the wonderful desserts.
- Tom MCclone for your help in securing the steaks and generous donation towards our event.
- Bob Shest for printing tickets at no charge.
- Norman Christiansen family for supplying us with the delicious potatoes for baking and also for the donation of napkins.
- Reinhart Foods of Shawano for the donation of green beans and corn and Pam Westphal for helping make all the right choices for our groceries.
- Schmidt’s Ponderosa for securing milk from DFA Dairies, and to Phil Stern DFA Field man for delivering the milk.
- Club 117 for the donation of carry out containers.
- Grass Land Dairies for the donation of butter.
- Thrivent Financial for the Team Action Card.

St. Paul Men’s Club

THANK YOU TO MRS. DONNA NILES

After 32 years serving here at St. Paul in the Preschool and 4K room, Mrs. Donna Niles has decided to hang up her caring, motherly apron at St. Paul, to retire. She began her career here as the teacher's aide in the 1st grade room moving to the director/teacher position in 2006. She has spent all these years bringing young ones from tears of separation from parents in the fall to tears of joy for their accomplishment in spring at the Little Christian Praise Program. She will be formally recognized at the 10:15 service on June 2nd. There will be a card box provided for anyone wishing to send personal cards of appreciation.

THANK YOU TO MRS. ROBIN REEP

Where were you 20 years ago? That is when Mrs. Reep began taking care of (teaching) the kindergarten students here at St. Paul. We would like to thank her for the 20 years of inspiration which she has brought to the students at St. Paul. We look forward to her continuing to ignite the imagination in our students while instilling a love of our Lord and learning.

THANK YOU TO MRS. STACI PEDERSEN

After 9 years as Preschool teacher aide, Mrs. Staci Pedersen is leaving her position here at St. Paul. She has worked with Mrs. Niles in the care of the young children who have come to St. Paul to begin their school career. We would like thank her for her years here at St. Paul, and we wish her well as she moves on in her new career.

THANK YOU MRS. MAUREEN (MO) ZERNICKE

Maureen, after 8 years serving here at St. Paul as the Head Cook for our children, will be leaving St. Paul at the end of this school year. She has created menus, ordered food and served the daily hot lunch all according to state guidelines. She handled the mounds of paperwork admirably. We wish her well as she pursues a more fulltime career.
