The Festival of the Holy Trinity

Welcome to the House of the Lord

God is real. You believe this. You confess this. He is the Creator. He came as our Redeemer. His Spirit is with you and in all believers.

On Holy Trinity Sunday we celebrate and worship and confess that God is One. There is only One God. Yet we firmly believe, confess and teach that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit – three persons. It is a mystery. Can't you wait to get to heaven to see this three in one God?!!!!

Prayer: O Holy Trinity Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Grant Your blessings to me and all who gather for worship this morning here and throughout all Christendom. Your name be praised. Thanksgiving be Yours. Your kingdom come. Your will be done. All glory and honor be Yours both now and unto all eternity. Amen and Amen.

Opening Hymn 506 Glory Be to God the Father

Psalmody — Psalm 8

O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

You have set your glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger.

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,

the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

what is man that you are mindful of him,
and the son of man that you care for him?
Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor.
You have given him dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet,
all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, You have given us grace to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity by the confession of a true faith and to worship the Unity in the power of the Divine Majesty. Keep us steadfast in this faith and defend us from all adversities; for You, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, live and reign, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading — Proverbs 8:1–4, 22–31

Does not wisdom call? Does not understanding raise her voice? ²On the heights beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; ³beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries aloud: ⁴“To you, O men, I call, and my cry is to the children of man. . . . ²²“The LORD possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. ²³Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. ²⁴When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. ²⁵Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth, ²⁶before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. ²⁷When he established the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, ²⁸when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, ²⁹when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, ³⁰then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, ³¹rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading — Acts 2:14a, 22–36

Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, . . . ²²“Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know— ²³this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. ²⁴God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. ²⁵For David says concerning him, “I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; ²⁶therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; my flesh also will dwell in hope. ²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. ²⁸You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’ ²⁹“Brothers, I may say to you with confidence about the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne, ³¹he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. ³²This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. ³³Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. ³⁴For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, “The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, ³⁵until I make your enemies your footstool.’ ³⁶Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. John the eighth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

The Jews answered [Jesus], “Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?” ⁴⁹Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. ⁵⁰Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it, and he is the judge. ⁵¹Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death.” ⁵²The Jews said to him, “Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham died, as did the prophets, yet you say, ‘If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death.’ ⁵³Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself out to be?” ⁵⁴Jesus answered, “If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’ ⁵⁵But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad.” ⁵⁷So the Jews said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?” ⁵⁸Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am.” ⁵⁹So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Good News For Kids

Athanasian Creed

Whoever desires to be saved must, above all, hold the catholic faith.

Whoever does not keep it whole and undefiled will without doubt perish eternally.

And the catholic faith is this,

that we worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, neither confusing the persons nor dividing the substance.

For the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Holy Spirit is another.

But the Godhead of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is one: the glory equal, the majesty coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit:

the Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, the Holy Spirit uncreated;

the Father infinite, the Son infinite, the Holy Spirit infinite;

the Father eternal, the Son eternal, the Holy Spirit eternal.

And yet there are not three Eternals, but one Eternal,
just as there are not three Uncreated or three Infinites, but one Uncreated and one Infinite.

In the same way, the Father is almighty, the Son almighty, the Holy Spirit almighty;
and yet there are not three Almighty's, but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God;
and yet there are not three Gods, but one God.

So the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, the Holy Spirit is Lord;
and yet there are not three Lords, but one Lord.

Just as we are compelled by the Christian truth to acknowledge each distinct person as God and Lord, so also are we prohibited by the catholic religion to say that there are three Gods or Lords.

The Father is not made nor created nor begotten by anyone. The Son is neither made nor created, but begotten of the Father alone.

The Holy Spirit is of the Father and of the Son, neither made nor created nor begotten, but proceeding.

Thus, there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Spirit, not three Holy Spirits.

And in this Trinity none is before or after another; none is greater or less than another;

but the whole three persons are coeternal with each other and coequal, so that in all things, as has been stated above, the Trinity in Unity and Unity in Trinity is to be worshiped.

Therefore, whoever desires to be saved must think thus about the Trinity.

But it is also necessary for everlasting salvation that one faithfully believe the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, it is the right faith that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is at the same time both God and man.

He is God, begotten from the substance of the Father before all ages; and He is man, born from the substance of His mother in this age:

perfect God and perfect man, composed of a rational soul and human flesh;
equal to the Father with respect to His divinity, less than the Father with respect to His humanity.

Although He is God and man, He is not two, but one Christ:

one, however, not by the conversion of the divinity into flesh, but by the assumption of the humanity into God;

one altogether, not by confusion of substance, but by unity of person.

For as the rational soul and flesh is one man, so God and man is one Christ,

who suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead,

ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, God Almighty, from whence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

At His coming all people will rise again with their bodies and give an account concerning their own deeds.

And those who have done good will enter into eternal life, and those who have done evil into eternal fire.

This is the catholic faith; whoever does not believe it faithfully and firmly cannot be saved.

Service of the Sacrament page 160

Note for those desiring to commune... Our practice of close communion is the Biblical and historic practice of the Christian church. It is prompted by love, both for God's Word and for His people since it seeks to prevent spiritual damage to those who do not recognize the true body and blood of Christ in, with, and under the bread and wine in this Holy Supper (1 Corinthians 11:29). Furthermore, it does not deny that members of other denominations are Christians. Rather, it bows the knee to the Bible's deep concern for doctrinal truth (Romans 16:17) and the Bible's witness that the Lord's Supper is the highest expression of fellowship and doctrinal unity (Acts 2:42). For this reason, guests who are not a member of a sister LCMS congregation are asked to speak to one of our pastors before communing.

JOY: FULLY LUTHERAN . . . is the theme for the LCMS convention to be held July 20–25, and JOY to the WORLD is the title for the special collection being held in all LCMS congregations during June to bring to the convention. All gifts will be presented by the delegates on the floor of the convention and go directly to the mission of the LCMS to make known the Good News of Jesus Christ to the world. St. Paul, Bonduel, has always been a leader in mission offerings, and there is little doubt we will once again step up to bring glory to God through this door offering to be held following the services on June 27 and 30.

55+ Group . . . will meet Tuesday, June 25, for the noon potluck lunch in the fellowship hall. The program will be presented by Joel Kroenke of the Shawano County Historical Society. He will talk about the early transportation on the Wolf River. He will also show many of his historical maps. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

A HUGE THANK YOU . . . goes out to everyone who either donated or purchased a treasure from the second annual rummage sale at WRLHS. It was even better than last year! WRLHS was able to donate $250 to the Humane Society from the bake sale. All unsold articles of clothing were given to Orphan Grain Train, and all remaining items were donated to Pine Ridge Reservation (poorest reservation in US). What a blessing it is to give to others! Thank you so much for all your generosity. God is good!

Everyone, Please Help Us Reach Our Goal . . . Wolf River Lutheran High School kicked off its “Building Christian Leaders” campaign in October 2018, with a goal of $200,000 to supplement its financial operations. As of May 20, 2019, the seed donor pool has contributed $83,300, and the general membership has contributed $13,500. The seed donors are asking the general membership to contribute an additional $69,800 to match the full amount that has been contributed. Please send your checks to Wolf River Lutheran High School, c/o Matching Fund, W7467 River Bend Road, Shawano, WI 54166. Write ‘Building Christian Leaders’ on the memo line of your check. We sincerely thank all the donors who have previously contributed to the campaign.

Wolf River Lutheran High School . . . will be hosting the first “Aim High-Fly High Kite Festival” on July 20th from 11:00am - 4:00pm. A stunt team choreographed to music and quad-line teams is anticipated to attend, as well as other teams from Wisconsin. There will be a kids’ workshop, and children will receive a free kite to take home. There will also be a 4-mile run and a 1-mile run/walk that day at 10:00am along with a 1/4-mile kids race at 11:00am. Concessions will be available that day serving hamburgers, brats, walking tacos, drinks and snacks. Volunteers are needed to help work the concession stand and help with parking that day. There are two shifts: 9:30am–1:00pm and 1:00–4:30pm. You may call the school at 715–745–2400 and Jean will add your name, or you may sign up on the link <://signup.com/go/VmRDQie>. If you are unable to work that day and would like to donate funds towards the supplies, please call Amy Rottier at 715–584–2299.

Rummage Sale . . . will take place at Immanuel Lutheran Church-White Clay Lake, W3110 White Clay Lake Dr, Cecil, June 20–22. Hours are 8:00am–5:00pm on Thursday and Friday and 9:00am–2:00pm on Saturday. Baked goods will also be for sale.
