Old Testament Reading — Isaiah 6:1–8

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ²Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³And one called to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!” ⁴And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵And I said: “Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷And he touched my mouth and said: “Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for.”

⁸And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading — Acts 2:14a, 22–36

Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, . . .

²²“Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know — ²³this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. ²⁴God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. ²⁵For David says concerning him, “I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; ²⁶therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; my flesh also will dwell in hope. ²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. ²⁸You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

²⁹“Brothers, I may say to you with confidence about the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne, ³¹he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. ³²This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. ³³Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. ³⁴For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, “The Lord said to my Lord, sit at my right hand, ³⁵until I make your enemies your footstool.’ ³⁶Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the third chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. ²This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him.”

³Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.” ⁴Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old?

Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" ⁵Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. ⁶That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' ⁸The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

⁹Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" ¹⁰Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things? ¹¹Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen, but you do not receive our testimony. ¹²If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. ¹⁴And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

¹⁶"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Common Responsory

Forever, O Lord, Your Word is firmly set in the heavens.

Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

Blessed are those who hear the Word of God and keep it.

Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

Athanasian Creed

Whoever desires to be saved must, above all, hold the catholic faith.

Whoever does not keep it whole and undefiled will without doubt perish eternally.

And the catholic faith is this,

that we worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, neither confusing the persons nor dividing the substance.

For the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Holy Spirit is another.

But the Godhead of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is one: the glory equal, the majesty coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit:

the Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, the Holy Spirit uncreated;

the Father infinite, the Son infinite, the Holy Spirit infinite;

the Father eternal, the Son eternal, the Holy Spirit eternal.

And yet there are not three Eternals, but one Eternal, just as there are not three Uncreated or three Infinities, but one Uncreated and one Infinite.

In the same way, the Father is almighty, the Son almighty, the Holy Spirit almighty; and yet there are not three Almighty's, but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God;

and yet there are not three Gods, but one God.

So the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, the Holy Spirit is Lord;

and yet there are not three Lords, but one Lord.

Just as we are compelled by the Christian truth to acknowledge each distinct person as God and Lord, so also are we prohibited by the catholic religion to say that there are three Gods or Lords.

The Father is not made nor created nor begotten by anyone.

The Son is neither made nor created, but begotten of the Father alone.

The Holy Spirit is of the Father and of the Son, neither made nor created nor begotten, but proceeding.

Thus, there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Spirit, not three Holy Spirits.

And in this Trinity none is before or after another; none is greater or less than another;

but the whole three persons are coeternal with each other and coequal, so that in all things, as has been stated above, the Trinity in Unity and Unity in Trinity is to be worshiped.

Therefore, whoever desires to be saved must think thus about the Trinity.

But it is also necessary for everlasting salvation that one faithfully believe the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, it is the right faith that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is at the same time both God and man.

He is God, begotten from the substance of the Father before all ages; and He is man, born from the substance of His mother in this age:

perfect God and perfect man, composed of a rational soul and human flesh;

equal to the Father with respect to His divinity, less than the Father with respect to His humanity.

Although He is God and man, He is not two, but one Christ:

one, however, not by the conversion of the divinity into flesh, but by the assumption of the humanity into God;

one altogether, not by confusion of substance, but by unity of person.

For as the rational soul and flesh is one man, so God and man is one Christ, who suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead, ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father, God Almighty, from whence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

At His coming all people will rise again with their bodies and give an account concerning their own deeds.

And those who have done good will enter into eternal life, and those who have done evil into eternal fire.

This is the catholic faith; whoever does not believe it faithfully and firmly cannot be saved. Amen.

Worship Next Thursday, May 30, 7:00pm . . . will include the Lord's Supper and our 8th grade graduation.

St. Paul Lutheran Preschool . . . is now enrolling for the 2024–2025 school year. 3K classes will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:00am – 3:00pm, with a half-day option available. NO TUITION will be charged for 3K. 4K classes will be held daily from 8:00am – 3:00pm. Tuition will be $185/month. Contact Principal Landgrave at 715–758–8532 to register or for more information.

Primal Eats Fundraiser . . . Our SPYRT youth group is selling Primal Eats meal tickets as a fundraiser. This event will be held on June 30 from 11:00am–5:00pm. Tickets sell for $15 and include two meats and four sides. Tickets may be purchased from youth group members, after church on Thursday, or between church services on Sunday.

BoxDrop of Shawano . . . The owners of the Shawano BoxDrop store enjoy helping nonprofit organizations. For the month of May, if you make a purchase at the Shawano BoxDrop store, 10% of the store's profit will be donated to St. Paul Lutheran Church and School. Mention St. Paul and this promotion. BoxDrop is located at 325 S. Main Street in Shawano. www.boxdropshawano.com

Booster Club Night Golf . . . Next Saturday, June 1, is the Booster Club's 6th annual Night Golf Outing being held at Shawano Lake Golf Course. Join us to golf, OR just come for dinner and drinks, then bid on the silent auction items. This outing is our Booster Club's largest fundraiser, and we would love to have a larger St. Paul showing that night to help us raise money. Please scan the QR code on the back of the bulletin to register for dinner, golf, or even to sponsor a hole at the outing. Hope to see you there!

Transfer the Blessings . . . Gift planning offers solutions for donors wishing to support ministry through their gifts. Maybe you desire to support ministry centering around a concept rather than an organization. You know what you want to give but maybe not to whom you want to give. Through questions and investigation, your LCMS Foundation Gift Planning Counselor can enable you to zero in on what is in line with the will of our Heavenly Father. For assistance, call or text Gary Vought at 715–891–1447.

Pastoral Call St. Paul Special Voters' Meeting

Monday, June 17 at 6:30pm in the fellowship hall

We will be having a special voters' meeting to extend a pastoral call. The Board of Elders will be providing information over the upcoming weeks to the congregation to review before the meeting. This is the information they have gathered during the interview and search process. Please plan to come to this meeting as this is a very important event for our church. All are welcome to attend.

The Lutheran Hour . . . “Lit Up” Acts 11:24

The Law and Gospel light of Jesus is both an exposing searchlight that reveals our shortcomings and a warm grow light that nurtures us. Tune in next Sunday at 10:00am to hear Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler on WRVM/102.7 FM, or go to www.lutheranhour.org

WRLHS Rummage Sale . . . Mark your calendars for Wolf River Lutheran High School’s annual rummage sale which will be held June 7–8, 14–15, and 21–22 at the high school. Donation drop-off times will be from now until May 31 from 9:00am–1:00pm. Please call or text Pastor Palmer if you are interesting in helping with the sale. His number is 715–853–5225.

Shawano County Fair Volunteers . . . The fair scheduling time is approaching. Donna Klemens will be the new scheduler for the fair. Her contact information is donnaklemens3@gmail.com or 715–853–3127. If you are interested in selling tickets or being a flagman or parker for a 4-hour shift, contact her as soon as possible. The fair days are August 29–September 2.

A Final Word From Your Wolf River Principal . . . Where has time gone? Graduation was held last Friday night! We had nine seniors this year which is exciting. I am so proud of our students. They have worked hard this year and accomplished so much. As I write this message, I want to let you all know that I love Wolf River and I believe in the mission to prepare Christian Leaders for an ever-changing world. It has been a true blessing to be part of this special place for the past three years, connecting with our many supporters, the community, and building relationships with the students and their families. This will be my final message to each of you as I have accepted a call to serve at Celebration in Appleton. This was not an easy decision, for I will miss Wolf River greatly. The Board of Directors is planning a farewell to Mrs. K. on June 14 from 4:00pm–6:00pm at the school. Hope to see you there.

Blessings, Mrs. Kosmerchock

WRLHS Administrator . . . The Call Committee for Wolf River Lutheran High School in Shawano is looking for possible candidates for the principal/administrator position at the high school. Some possible qualifications for the job would be: be synodically trained, preferably have a Master’s Degree, have some experience in administration, be a strong spiritual leader, and possibly have some knowledge of the parental choice program. If you or someone you know would consider applying for the job, please send the name, contact information, and a summary of qualifications to Gerry Schmidt at g.schmidt@stpaulbonduel.com as soon as possible.
