Introit — Psalm 135:1–3, 13–14

Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
your renown, O LORD, throughout all ages.
Praise the LORD! Praise the name of the LORD,
give praise, O servants of the LORD,
who stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God!
Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
sing to his name, for it is pleasant!
Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
your renown, O LORD, throughout all ages.
For the LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Kyrie and Gloria in Excelsis page 204

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Everlasting Father, source of every blessing, mercifully direct and govern us by Your Holy Spirit that we may complete the works You have prepared for us to do; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading — Numbers 11:4–6, 10–16, 24–29

Now the rabble that was among [the children of Israel] had a strong craving. And the people of Israel also wept again and said, “Oh that we had meat to eat! ⁵We remember the fish we ate in Egypt that cost nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic. ⁶But now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at. . . .”

¹⁰Moses heard the people weeping throughout their clans, everyone at the door of his tent. And the anger of the LORD blazed hotly, and Moses was displeased. ¹¹Moses said to the LORD, “Why have you dealt ill with your servant? And why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? ¹²Did I conceive all this people? Did I give them birth, that you should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing child,’ to the land that you swore to give their fathers? ¹³Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me and say, ‘Give us meat, that we may eat.’ ¹⁴I am not able to carry all this people alone; the burden is too heavy for me. ¹⁵If you will treat me like this, kill me at once, if I find favor in your sight, that I may not see my wretchedness.”

¹⁶Then the LORD said to Moses, “Gather for me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them, and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you. . . .”

²⁴So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. And he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tent. ²⁵Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the Spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. And as soon as the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied. But they did not continue doing it.

²⁶Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the Spirit rested on them. They were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷And a young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.” ²⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, the assistant of Moses from his youth, said, “My lord Moses, stop them.” ²⁹But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD’s people were prophets, that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading — James 5:1-20

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you. ²Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver have corroded, and their corrosion will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure in the last days. ⁴Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, are crying out against you, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. ⁵You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you.

⁷Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. ⁸You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. ⁹Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

¹²But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your “yes” be yes and your “no” be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. ¹⁴Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. ¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit.

¹⁹My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, ²⁰let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia and Verse page 205

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the ninth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

John said to [Jesus], “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” ³⁹But Jesus said, “Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰For the one who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

⁴²“Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. ⁴³And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell. ⁴⁷And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.’ ⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Announcements

Preparing for next week's worship . . . Genesis 2:18–25; Hebrews 2:1–18; Mark 10:2–16

Join us this morning for . . . Messianic Prophecies of the Old Testament Bible study at 9:15am. What authors say about this study: "Our primary reason for writing this book is to help you see Jesus in the Old Testament so that your relationship with Him deepens and your knowledge of God's Word increases. Then you will see what the New Testament sees - that Israel's Scripture not only speaks of the Messiah but also identifies Jesus as the Christ", Luke 24:27. He will do the same for you. We want you to see Jesus."

The North Wisconsin District Adult Gathering . . . will be held Tuesday, October 15 at Mount Olive Lutheran Church in Weston. Deadline to register is October 1. Keynote speaker, Rev. Dr. Reed Lessing, will share a message based on his book Overcoming Life's Sorrows: Learning from Jeremiah which is included with each registration. Registration forms are available in the narthex and on the NWD homepage at nwdlcms.org under "Events and Info." A bus has been graciously sponsored for this event, and the correct number of those registered is needed.

Opportunities to Support Missionaries!

- ✧ Amy Rottier is returning to five remote villages in Guatemala January 8–19, 2025, to help bring Jesus' message, medical support and basic care. A soup sale to help support her will be held today, September 29. She will be selling quart containers of cream of potato soup and chili for $10 each. Thank you for your support.
- ✧ Paul Mroczenski is an international vicar raising funds to serve for fourteen months in Puerto Rico. He will be our guest in worship on October 6, when we will have a door offering for him. He will also make a presentation between services at 9:15am that day.
- ✧ Viola, Pastor Vanko and family, and The Lutheran Heritage Foundation are our three primary mission emphases this fall. Our door offerings for them will be the last two weeks of October.

The Lutheran Hour . . . "Fit to Be Tied" Genesis 30:8 A strong knot in the right place holds everything together. God made Jesus to be the "Master Point" to bind all people to Himself through faith. Tune in next Sunday at 10:00am to hear Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler on WRVM/102.7 FM, or go to www.lutheranhour.org.

Thank You . . . to EVERYONE who baked cookies for the annual Founders Day Cookie Sale. We needed the help to reach our goal and greatly appreciated the response with dozens of cookies! Those who will benefit from the proceeds of $801.30 are: St. Paul Romania missions for Pastor Vanko; Missionary Viola Fronkova; St. Paul Education Fund, and St. Paul Church Worker Scholarship fund. We are blessed to have a congregation of families and parents with a heart for missions and each other.

Bake Sale . . . will take place after services on Thursday, October 3 and Sunday, October 6 in the fellowship hall. Proceeds will be applied towards St Paul Early Childhood Fund; St. Paul School Improvements; Wolf River Lutheran High School; and St. Paul Missions. The Mission Circle at St. Paul sincerely thanks you for your support and appreciation for those who give time and enjoy baking for our annual LWML Bake Sale.

Snacks N Yacks . . . Pastor Shoup, last Sunday during his sermon, reminded us of his call to the 35-45 year-olds to know that “It is our time!” The ball is on the 40 yard line. Who is going to get it to the goal line? It is your turn! Really! Time to join us and be those who are the next generation of leaders who step up to the plate and swing to knock it out of the park right into heaven.

- Snacks and Yacks is about growing in leadership in Christ’s Church.
- It is your time. Join us for a little cookout and chat about the church’s future.
- Bring something to grill out. Or bring something to pass (chips, drink, desert, whatever). Or just come. That’s what’s most important. This is your church. Step out of your comfort level and see what good things the Lord has for you and His church!!! Tomorrow (Monday, September 30). Cook out at 6:00pm.

October Sundays

October 6 - Annual LWML Worship Service

October 13 - Annual Anniversary Sunday

October 20 - Annual Missions Sunday

October 27 - Annual Reformation Sunday

LCMS Foundation . . . Gary Vought will be here at 9:15am on Sunday, October 13. Attend his presentation between services to learn more about the LCMS Foundation! The gift planning process of an estate plan requires multi-channel communication. Have you ever heard of someone needing services from several doctors at a time, yet those doctors really didn't understand what the other was doing? The same can be true about your attorney, tax preparer and financial advisor. Your LCMS Foundation gift planning counselor can assist in facilitating group communication between you and these professionals, so they are working together for you. For more information contact Gary Vought at 715-891-1447 or by email at gary.vought@lfnd.org
