Psalmody — Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength,
God a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way,
though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea,
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble at its swelling.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved;
God will help her when morning dawns.

The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Come, behold the works of the LORD,
how he has brought desolations on the earth.

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow and shatters the spear; he burns the chariots with fire.

“Be still, and know that I am God.

I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!”

The LORD of hosts is with us;

the God of Jacob is our fortress.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Almighty and gracious Lord, pour out Your Holy Spirit on Your faithful people. Keep us steadfast in Your grace and truth, protect and deliver us in times of temptation, defend us against all enemies, and grant to Your Church Your saving peace; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading — Revelation 14:6–7

Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. ⁷And he said with a loud voice, “Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading — Romans 3:19–28

Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, Nso that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. ²⁰For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

²¹But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— ²²the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. ²⁶It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

²⁷Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. ²⁸For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the eighth chapter.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, “If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

³³They answered him, “We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, ‘You will become free’?”

³⁴Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever.

³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

For our guests desiring the Lord's Supper...

Holy Communion is the eating and drinking of Christ's crucified and risen body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins, for strength for this life, and for the assurance of everlasting life with Him. It is a miraculous gift full of grace.

The Bible also teaches that anyone who receives the Lord's Supper who does not believe or has not been taught our Lord's teaching, or who is unrepentant, receives Christ's body and blood to his or her harm. Out of love for you, we kindly ask you to speak to one of our pastors before communing if you are not a member of an LCMS congregation.

Annual Wreath Sale . . . St. Paul Lutheran School is once again hosting our annual Christmas Wreath Sale. To place your order, please complete a form available from a St. Paul family or find them in the office and church narthex. Please be sure to submit your order forms to the office by October 30. Wreath pick-up is Friday, November 22, from 2:00pm–5:30pm by the shed north of school.

St. Paul School Musical . . . What's Up, Zak? will be performed by the students of St. Paul Lutheran School on Wednesday, October 30th at 6:30pm in the gym. All are invited to attend and enjoy free entertainment by our school's students! The second performance for grandparents will take place on Grandparents' Day, November 11th.

The next Altar Guild meeting . . . will take place on Monday, November 4th at 6:30pm in the fellowship hall. Some important matters will be discussed. Committees for December-May will be determined. More members are needed. This is an easy way for a person to serve God and the church without requiring a lot of time. Please consider attending this meeting to get more details.

Leaf Raking . . . It's that time of year again! The leaves are falling, and with that comes the unenviable job of raking, bagging, burning, hauling, etc. Let the 8th grade class from St. Paul lend you a helping hand. Please call Aaron Landgrave to schedule a date and time at 715–758–8532, ext. 225. The Village of Bonduel has designated dates when leaves will be picked up at the roadsides. Let the 8th graders rake your leaves to the road for you! A freewill donation towards the 8th grade class trip to Washington, D.C. is appreciated but not required.

The Meat Raffle to Support the 8th grade trip to Washington D.C. . . . will be held on November 9th at 2:00pm at The Lumberyard in Bonduel. Have some fun and raise some funds to help the class with the cost of the trip. If you can't make it but would like to support the class, cash donations may be dropped off at the school office.

Volunteers Are Needed . . . Would you like to be put on a substitute list to help serve St. Paul school students during lunchtime from 11:00am – 1:00pm? Please call the school office to sign up at 715–758–8532.

St. John, Suring, Annual Potato Pancake Dinner . . . will be Sunday, October 27, 10:00am – 1:30pm at 8905 St. John's Road, Suring. Baked goods, crafts, and take home meals will also be available. Cost: adults $13, children (6-12) $7, children 5 and under free.

North and South WI District Basic LERT training event

LERT stands for Lutheran Early Response Teams. A training for this will take place at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Wisconsin Rapids (1517 S. 24th Street) on Saturday, November 9th. Together we will address the nature of and what the LCMS response would be to a disaster will be discussed. The goal is to prepare congregations and individual members to be better prepared when a disaster strikes and to help them know how to respond within their families, congregations, and in Word and deed within the greater communities. Registration is required. Doors will open at 8:00am, and the event will begin at 9:00am. Lunch will be served at the conclusion of the event (approx. 12:30pm). Cost - $35 at the door (cash or check to: NWD Disaster Response)

Registration and Details - https://www.lcms-lert.org/need/detail/?need_id=1002426
Please contact Pastor Andy Weden at Peace Lutheran Campus Center with any questions (715-345-6510 or aweden@uwsp.edu).

St. Paul Lutheran School Job Openings . . . we are looking for an assistant athletics director. Duties include assisting and leading the following: set-up and take down concession stand on the day of event, supervise when the athletics director is not present, coordinate softball tournament during Track and Field Day, and coordinate special events (ex. parents' night, 8th grade recognition, etc.) This is a paid position.

We are also seeking a person to oversee our After School Care program. The hours are 2:45 – 5:30 pm Monday thru Friday on school days. The person will manage 5-15 children, with a schedule that has already been established. Hourly pay is $14+. To inquire call Principal Aaron Landgrave at 715–758–8532 or email a.landgrave@stpaulbonduel.com

The Lutheran Hour . . . "Working the System" Genesis 33:8

God's Law is a "system" that keeps the world from flying apart while it also shows us we need the Savior Who came to live, suffer, and rise for us. Sunday at 10:00am to hear guest speaker Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler on WRVM/102.7 FM, or go to www.lutheranhour.org.

Food Donations Requested . . . The Domestic Abuse Shelter of Shawano County–Safe Haven is in need of donations for Thanksgiving food boxes to benefit both their shelter and outreach clients. Items needed include instant mashed potatoes, canned cranberries, gravy (jar or packet), French fried onions for casseroles, biscuit mix, canned fruit, graham cracker pie crusts, pie crust mix, Jell-O, readymade frosting, and meat (turkey, ground turkey, chicken, ham). Please place the items you wish to donate in the designated box in the narthex. Please contact Debbie Hull at 715- 853-6557 if you have any questions.

Young at Heart Worship Service and Meal . . . The Wednesday, November 20, 11:00am church service normally held in the Gethsemane Room will have the “Young at Heart” theme for all people in the “extended youth” period of their life and will be held in the sanctuary with a Thanksgiving meal in the fellowship hall to follow the service. You do not need to be a “shut-in” to attend this Thanksgiving event; but please do sign up in the narthex or call the church office to let them know you will be attending.

These midweek matinee services have been called the "Shut-In" service and we believe that may have confused some people. We hope that the attendance will increase after we explain that it is for everyone who has reached that time in their life where they might feel the need or want for some Christian fellowship with a meaningful service, communion, and a meal afterwards to continue the fellowship. This service is offered on the third Wednesday of each month at 11:00am. Please join us and check it out. We do the cooking and dishes, so you can just relax and enjoy. If you need a ride, please let us know.
