The Twenty-sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Opening Hymn 793 Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

Confession and Absolution page 203

Introit — Psalm 48:11–14

The one who endures to the end will be saved.

Let Mount Zion be glad!

Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments!

Walk about Zion, go around her, number her towers, consider well her ramparts, go through her citadels, that you may tell the next generation that this is God, our God forever and ever.

He will guide us forever.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Kyrie and Gloria in Excelsis page 204

Salutation and Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O Lord, by Your bountiful goodness release us from the bonds of our sins, which by reason of our weakness we have brought upon ourselves, that we may stand firm until the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Old Testament Reading — Daniel 12:1–3

“At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone whose name shall be found written in the book. ²And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky above; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading — Hebrews 10:11–25

Every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. ¹⁴For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.

¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, ¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds,” ¹⁷then he adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” ¹⁸Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

¹⁹Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.
These things are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.
Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the thirteenth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

As [Jesus] came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!” ²And Jesus said to him, “Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down.”

³And as he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴“Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are about to be accomplished?” ⁵And Jesus began to say to them, “See that no one leads you astray. ⁶Many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. ⁷And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁸For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. These are but the beginning of the birth pains.

⁹“But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. ¹⁰And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. ¹¹And when they bring you to trial and deliver you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. ¹²And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death. ¹³And you will be hated by all for my name’s sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Offering

Veterans Day Prayer

Lord God Almighty, You have sustained our nation in the past and continue to bless us today.

We bow before You with humble thanks and praise.

We gratefully pause to reflect and honor those who gave or who continue to sacrifice so much in the defense of our freedom.

Lord, forgive us for however we have as individuals or as a nation lived selfishly, with little regard for Your will, or for the good of others.

We remember the great courage, selfless service, and honorable sacrifice of so many throughout history who have answered the call to serve.

Comfort the families who mourn the loss of loved ones.

Comfort those who suffer permanent injuries as a result of serving our nation in the military.

We remember with thankfulness the millions of Americans who give so generously,

including especially the family members of our soldiers, sailors,

airmen,

Marines

and Coast Guardsmen.

Grant us the resources and willing hearts to support them.

Lord, bless and keep safe our chaplains in Your name.

Fill them with the joy that comes from knowing You have defeated our greatest enemies –sin and death –

through the death and resurrection of Your Son, Jesus.

Cause their ministry through Your Word to strengthen the spirit and resolve of the men and women they serve.

Mend the wounds of all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit.

Grant their physicians knowledge and wisdom as they seek the best treatments for patients' suffering.

Lord, we do thank You for the gift we enjoy in this country that makes American life possible – the gift of freedom – freedom to speak,

hear,
 learn,
work,
 play,
compete,
 sing,
vote,
 travel,
raise families,
 exchange knowledge,
debate ideas,
 help,
serve, and most especially,
 the freedom to worship,
the freedom to hear Your Word of salvation in Jesus,
 and to share it.

Guide us to use freedom in the United States of America to honor You and to serve others.

For all of this and more, O Lord,
 we are blessed to pause, to honor our veterans,
the men and women who risked their lives in the defense of freedom, and to thank You for them.

Watch over them and their families.
 Use their past service
to spark in each of us a sense of responsibility to preserve for those who follow us what you have entrusted to our care today – life in the United States of America.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
 Amen.

Prayer of the Church

The Service of the Sacrament

For our guests desiring the Lord's Supper...

Holy Communion is the eating and drinking of Christ's crucified and risen body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins, for strength for this life, and for the assurance of everlasting life with Him. It is a miraculous gift full of grace.

The Bible also teaches that anyone who receives the Lord's Supper who does not believe or has not been taught our Lord's teaching, or who is unrepentant, receives Christ's body and blood to his or her harm. Out of love for you, we kindly ask you to speak to one of our pastors before communing if you are not a member of an LCMS congregation.

Announcements

Preparing for next week's worship . . . Isaiah 51:4–6; Jude 20–25; Mark 13:24–37

Welcome, Pastor Fehrmann!

Plan to attend the installation worship service of Pastor Fehrmann tonight at November 17 at 6:00pm. We will have a guest preacher, a number of LCMS pastors will participate, and St. Paul School children will sing (thank you in advance for bringing them.) Let this be an additional time to worship or your main worship for the week. (Holy Communion will not be served.)

Our sanctuary seats 450. Let's fill it to hear the Word and to honor the Lord for sending another pastor to serve us.

A card box will be available. Let's welcome the Fehrmanns.

Refreshments afterward – Please consider bringing a plate of cookies, bars, fruit, cheese, sausage, or vegetable tray. And please let Kimberly Brei know what you are bringing (call or text her at 715–851–0418).

Let us give thanks to the Lord!

Our Annual Young at Heart Worship Service . . . will be held on Wednesday, November 20, at 11:00am in the church sanctuary. A Thanksgiving meal in the fellowship hall will follow the service. You do not need to be a “shut-in” to attend this Thanksgiving event. Sign up in the narthex or call the church office at 715–758–8559 by November 17 to let us know you will be attending.

American Red Cross Blood Drive . . . will be held in the fellowship hall tomorrow, November 18, from noon until 5:00pm. Appointments are appreciated. Register online at redcrossblood.org (use sponsor code: stpaulbonduel), or sign up in the narthex. Please call Karen Banaszynski at 715–758–8103 if you have any questions.
