Old Testament Reading — Exodus 3:1-15

Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian, and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. ²And the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. He looked, and behold, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed. ³And Moses said, “I will turn aside to see this great sight, why the bush is not burned.” ⁴When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” ⁵Then he said, “Do not come near; take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” ⁶And he said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

⁷Then the LORD said, “I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters. I know their sufferings, ⁸and I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ⁹And now, behold, the cry of the people of Israel has come to me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. ¹⁰Come, I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.” ¹¹But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?” ¹²He said, “But I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you, that I have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain.”

¹³Then Moses said to God, “If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?” ¹⁴God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And he said, “Say this to the people of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” ¹⁵God also said to Moses, “Say this to the people of Israel, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.’ This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations.”

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Choir Anthem Sunday Eternal Father, Strong to Save

Epistle Reading — 2 Thessalonians 2:1–8, 13–17

Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, ²not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. ³Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, ⁴who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. ⁵Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? ⁶And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. ⁸And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming. . . .

¹³But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. ¹⁴To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter.

¹⁶Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, ¹⁷comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the twentieth chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

There came to [Jesus] some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, ²⁸and they asked him a question, saying, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, having a wife but no children, the man must take the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁹Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died without children. ³⁰And the second ³¹and the third took her, and likewise all seven left no children and died. ³²Afterward the woman also died. ³³In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife.”

³⁴And Jesus said to them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, ³⁵but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, ³⁶for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. ³⁸Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him.” ³⁹Then some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you have spoken well.” ⁴⁰For they no longer dared to ask him any question.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

Responsory

Look down, O Lord, from Your holy place and consider us; incline Your ear and hear us, O God.

Open Your eyes, O Lord, and behold our desolation.

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, You who lead Joseph like a flock!

Open Your eyes, O Lord, and behold our desolation.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Open Your eyes, O Lord, and behold our desolation.

The Lutheran Hour . . . The Name on the Front" Romans 12:5-6

Mercy is an others-focused attitude because God is an others-first God. Tune in next Sunday at 10:00am to hear Rev. Dr. Michael Zeigler on WRVM/102.7 FM, or go to www.lutheranhour.org.

Accreditation Team Members Needed . . . As part of our upcoming school accreditation process, we are assembling a team of dedicated volunteers to help us reflect on our programs, gather feedback, and ensure that we continue to provide high-quality, Christian learning experiences for all students. We invite parents and St. Paul members to serve on this accreditation team, which will meet periodically over the next few months. Your insights and perspectives are invaluable to our ongoing improvement efforts. If you are interested in participating or for more information, please contact the school office at 715-785-8532 or Mr. Landgrave directly at a.landgrave@stpaulbonduel.com by Friday, November 7. Thank you for your support and commitment to St. Paul Lutheran School.

Fellowship today . . . will be served by Grades 7 & 8 to raise funds for their class trip to Washington, D.C.

Sunday School Teachers Needed . . . The Board of Parish Education is looking for team teachers, youth, and those interested helping St. Paul's children learn about God's Word to teach Sunday School once a month (or more) during the Bible study time from 9:15-10:00am on Sundays. Please contact Becky Fehrmann if you have any questions: 715-301-0320 or b.fehrmann@stpaulbonduel.com.

Our Annual Young at Heart Worship Service . . . will be held on Wednesday, November 19, at 11:00am in the church sanctuary. A Thanksgiving meal in the fellowship hall will follow the service. You do not need to be a “shut-in” to attend this Thanksgiving event. Sign up in the narthex or call the church office at 715-758-8559 by Sunday, November 16.

Fellowship Groups . . . In-home fellowship groups will begin in January and meet weekly. This will include a Bible study. Several people have come forward and offered to open up their home for these meetings and several have agreed to lead the discussions. Our first study will be a four-week video series from Lutheran Hour Ministries entitled, Households of Faith. If you are interested in being a leader, Pastor Colin Moon will be holding training in the conference room today, Sunday, November 9, from 9:15am–10:00am. All materials will be provided. Sign-up sheets will be available in the narthex. You are welcome to form your own groups (10–12 people) or be assigned to a group. May God richly bless these groups, and thank you for your consideration in being involved. Pastor Fehrmann's Bible study will continue as normal on these Sundays.

Transfer the Blessings Presentation . . . We are truly blessed! But when the Lord calls you home, do you know where your things will go? There are only three places your assets can go: your heirs, the IRS, or charities or ministry. Why not put a plan together to care for your family, reduce the tax burden on your estate, and leave more for the ministries you love? Gary Vought, who has served as our Planned Giving Counselor over the last 24 months is offering a final presentation on Sunday, November 16 at 9:15am to show how he can assist you with organizing your assets so you can decide what to leave for family and ministry, preparing to meet with a local attorney who will develop your will or living trust, and developing a planned gift for St. Paul Lutheran and/or other ministries. If you already have an estate plan in place, he can help you add a gift to ministry. This is made possible by St. Paul, the North Wisconsin District, and the LCMS Foundation. Please register by using the form on the information table in the narthex. If you can't make the presentation but would like assistance you can reach Gary at gary.vought@lfnd.org or 715-891-1447.

Wolf River Lutheran High School Auction . . . The 16th annual auction will be held at the high school on Saturday, November 15, beginning at 3:00pm. Tickets may be purchased online at www.wrlhs.org, or by phone at 715-745-2400.
